1. What are the key messages in this policy?

This Policy is an important Policy for all staff to understand. The key messages for staff are:

- MUFG Pension & Market Services encourages a culture of reporting actual or suspected conduct which is illegal, unacceptable, or undesirable (see definition of Reportable Conduct in Section 9);
- Any person that reports Reportable Conduct as a Whistleblower who is acting honestly and with genuine belief about the Reportable Conduct will be supported and protected; and
- Investigations of Reportable Conduct will be conducted in an objective, fair, independent, thorough, and confidential manner.

2. What is this policy?

The Whistleblower Policy (Policy) sets out MUFG Pension & Market Services' approach to encourage and support the Disclosure of Reportable Conduct and protect Whistleblowers from any retribution or other detriment that may arise as a result of their Disclosure. MUFG Pension & Market Services does not tolerate Reportable Conduct under any circumstances.

Words in bold have the meaning stated in Section 9 Definitions and appear in bold when first used.

MUFG Pension & Market Services has adopted the following principles in relation to its whistleblowing program:

- MUFG Pension & Market Services will support and protect Whistleblowers who act with reasonable belief about the Reportable Conduct from retribution or other detriment that may stem from making a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct;
- MUFG Pension & Market Services may not be able to extend the full level of protections and support set out in this Policy to Whistleblowers who are not employed by MUFG Pension & Market Services;
- MUFG Pension & Market Services will conduct investigations into Reportable Conduct in an objective, fair, independent, thorough, and confidential manner. Appropriate corrective action will be taken as warranted by the results of the investigation;
- MUFG Pension & Market Services will not take any action against a Whistleblower where a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct is unable to be substantiated or is found to be untrue, provided the Disclosure was made with a reasonable belief regarding the Reportable Conduct;
- MUFG Pension & Market Services may pursue legal or disciplinary action where a Whistleblower makes a report knowing it to be untrue or misleading.
- Whistleblowers may qualify for protection if Disclosures of Reportable Conduct are made to legal practitioners, or regulatory bodies;
- MUFG Pension & Market Services will not prevent (whether through a confidentiality agreement or otherwise) a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person (prospective, current, or former) from making a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct to a regulator, or legal counsel; and

- Whistleblowers are encouraged to contact a Whistleblowing Protection Office (WPO) or FairCall or an independent legal adviser prior to making a public interest disclosure or emergency disclosure in order to understand the criteria that qualifies those types of disclosure for protection.

3. Why do we need this policy?

In keeping with its values of Client Focused, Adapt and Evolve, and Together We Achieve, MUFG Pension & Market Services is committed to encouraging and supporting ethical and responsible behaviour. MUFG Pension & Market Services recognises the important role whistleblowing can play in the early detection of Reportable Conduct. MUFG Pension & Market Services also recognises that individuals who are considering disclosing Reportable Conduct may fear retribution or other detriment and require an assurance of protection.

4. Who does the policy apply to?

This Policy applies to all MUFG Pension & Market Services Persons globally. Any person in MUFG Pension & Market Services can make a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct under this Policy and is encouraged to do so.

Disclosures of Reportable Conduct may be made by anyone with a connection to MUFG Pension & Market Services. This includes directors, officers, employees, contractors, consultants, suppliers, third party providers, secondees, advisers, and former employees of MUFG Pension & Market Services and includes relatives and dependents of any of those persons.

This Policy does not cover the disclosure of personal workplace grievances such as:

- interpersonal conflict between a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person and another MUFG Pension & Market Services Person;
- a decision relating to the engagement, transfer or promotion of a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person;
- a decision relating to the terms and conditions of employment or engagement of a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person;
- a decision to suspend or terminate the employment or engagement of a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person, or otherwise to discipline a MUFG Pension & Market Services Person, where such conduct does not amount to Reportable Conduct. If you have a workplace grievance, please consult the MUFG Pension & Market Services Grievance Policy available on the MUFG Pension & Market Services intranet page; unless such disclosure also includes a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct.

5. How to comply with this policy?

5.1 How can I make a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct?

Whistleblowers who act with reasonable belief about the Reportable Conduct must be supported and protected. It is not acceptable to terminate, demote, suspend, threaten, harass or in any other manner discriminate against, or cause detriment to, a Whistleblower.

The identity of Whistleblowers who wish to remain anonymous must be omitted from all reports relating to the Disclosure of Reportable Conduct.

Disclosure of Reportable Conduct must be based on information that is directly known to the person making the disclosure. That person must have reasonable grounds to suspect the alleged Reportable Conduct has occurred or is likely to occur.

When making a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct, Whistleblowers are encouraged to clearly communicate that they are making a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct and to provide as much information as possible, including any known details related to the Reportable Conduct (e.g. date, time, location, name of person(s) involved, evidence (e.g. documents or emails), names of possible witnesses) and any steps that have been taken to disclose the matter elsewhere in an attempt to resolve the concern. Whistleblowers are not expected to investigate their concerns to prove their validity prior to making a Disclosure.

Disclosure of Reportable Conduct may be made by contacting one of the designated Whistleblowing Protection Officer (WPO) set out below.:

5.2 How will a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct be addressed?

All Disclosures of Reportable Conduct are to be treated as being submitted on a confidential basis. The reporter's identity will be protected in most circumstances, unless the disclosure is subject to any regulatory or legislative requirements or where the reportable conduct involves a threat to life or property or may involve, or potentially involve, illegal activity.

Disclosures that are not about 'Reportable Conduct' may not qualify for protection in some of the jurisdictions where MUFG Pension & Market Services operates.

Disclosures of Reportable Conduct will be assessed by the WPO as to whether further investigation is appropriate. The matter will then be referred to a designated Whistleblower Investigation Officer (WIO) for investigation.

The Whistleblower, where they have not reported anonymously, will be informed of the WIO appointment and the WIO will contact the Whistleblower as soon as practicable to acknowledge receipt of the Disclosure and to establish a process, including expected timeframes, for reporting to the Whistleblower on the progress of dealing with the Disclosure. The Whistleblower will be contacted by the WIO, as soon as practicable, to discuss the Whistleblower's welfare and to discuss a communication process, if required.

If it is determined that there is insufficient information or evidence to warrant further investigation, the Whistleblower will be informed at the earliest possible opportunity.

Any Disclosures of Reportable Conduct received via FairCall will be referred to a designated WPO. If the Chair of the MUFG Pension & Market Services Risk Committee is implicated in Reportable Conduct, the WPO will address the matter in conjunction with the Chair of the MUFG Pension & Market Services Board of Directors.

Where a formal investigation is initiated, this will be an objective fair, independent, thorough, and confidential process, without bias, conducted by the WIO. Investigations will be independent of the business unit in respect of which allegations have been made, the Whistleblower, or any person who is the subject of the Reportable Conduct.

The Whistleblower will be informed by the WIO of the final outcome of the investigation, where appropriate.

Where investigations substantiate an allegation arising from the Disclosure of Reportable Conduct, the matter will be dealt with in accordance with established administrative or disciplinary procedures, which may result in disciplinary action, including termination of employment or engagement.

The Whistleblower will be informed by the WIO of the final outcome of the investigation, where appropriate. However, to protect the confidentiality of the investigation (due to its potential impact on other employees), a full detailed account of the investigation conclusion cannot be provided.

The WPO will inform the relevant Board(s) and Committees when reports are received, the steps taken to ascertain whether an investigation is required, and at appropriate junctures the progress of the investigation and the investigative conclusion, including any remedial actions that may need to be completed.

All records relating to a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct are to be retained in secure storage for a minimum period of seven years unless local statutes of limitation or regulatory obligations require a longer retention period.

A Whistleblower may seek compensation and other remedies through the courts if:

- They suffered loss, damage, or injury because of a disclosure; and
- MUFG Pension & Market Services failed to take reasonable precautions and exercise due diligence to prevent the detrimental conduct.

5.3 Training on MUFG Pension & Market Services' whistleblowing program and access to this Policy

All MUFG Pension & Market Services directors, employees and selected contractors are required to undergo annual training on MUFG Pension & Market Services' whistleblowing program.

This Policy is available on the MUFG Pension & Market Services website, intranet, and on request from any member of the Risk and Compliance team.

6. How will policy compliance be monitored?

6.1 Reporting/Monitoring

The MUFG Pension & Market Services Company Secretary (except where a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct relates to them in which case the MUFG Pension & Market Services Chair of the Risk Committee) must report at least annually to the MUFG Pension & Market Services Risk Committee with respect to the operation and effectiveness of this Policy and the systems and controls contained within it. This report shall maintain the confidentiality of individual Whistleblowers.

The WPO, or their delegate, must also report promptly to any regulators where the regulator's rules or regulations require this, for example in contested employment claims where a claimant successfully based all or part of their claim on a Disclosure.

If a person who makes a Disclosure of Reportable Conduct considers that their Disclosure has not been dealt with in accordance with this Policy, or that they have been subject to retribution or other detriment as a result of making the Disclosure, the matter should be escalated to the WPO in the first instance or otherwise to the Chair of the MUFG Pension & Market Services Risk Committee. The WPO, in consultation with the Chair of the MUFG Pension & Market Services Risk Committee, will determine the most appropriate course for handling the matter, which may include informal resolution options or a formal investigation.

Any matters of a criminal nature will be reported by the WPO, in consultation with the Chair of the MUFG Pension & Market Services Risk Committee, to the police and, if appropriate, other appropriate regulatory authorities.

6.2 Non-compliance

MUFG Pension & Market Services Persons who cause, or threaten to cause, detriment to a Whistleblower, or who directly or indirectly cause the identity of a Whistleblower to be made known, may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment or engagement. Such persons may also be found to be civilly or criminally liable.

7. Are there alternative ways to make a report?

Various jurisdictions may allow alternative reports to be made in particular circumstances. Reports may be made to external third parties, for example:

- Regulators, including:
 - Australian Securities & Investments Commission (<https://asic.gov.au/about-asic/asic-investigations-and-enforcement/whistleblowing/how-asic-handles-whistleblower-reports>);
 - Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (<https://www.apra.gov.au/become-a-whistleblower-or-make-a-public-interest-disclosure>);

 - Central Bank of Ireland (<https://www.centralbank.ie/regulation/protected-disclosures-whistleblowing>).

- A Member of Parliament.
- A journalist or recognised associations, charities or other bodies in various territories and jurisdictions, such as Protect in the UK (<https://protect-advice.org.uk/contact-us/>).

A Whistleblower may report Reportable Conduct to a journalist or parliamentarian in circumstances of a “public interest disclosure” or an “emergency disclosure” and still qualify for protection under Whistleblower legislation.
